ATTENDANCE FIGURES

	1918	1917
Paid admissions	14,101	11,532
Statistical tickets	4,870	4,470
Children (estimated)	1,500	1,500
Children (estimated)	2,500	1,500
Total attendance	26,974	19,011
Total cash receipts	$5,968	$4,887

This comparison is between the corresponding days of the two years. The paid admissions to the grand stand, including reserved seats, was 11,792. The total grand stand receipts were $5,817.20 as against $2,455.55 in 1917, and the gate and grand stand combined were $9,484.20, as against $7,442.55 a year ago.

From the moment when, with a blare of brass and a pounding drum, the fully decorated autos and floats of the automobile parade filed into the grounds to that when the last amusement, somewhat dragged but happy, and clutching his ultimate prize with a tenacity borne of the knowledge that the parade was an indefinite number of miles, there was never a lull in the excitement.

"Travelers' Day" of 1918 must be added to the list of successful days in the Exhibition, and the mere fact that the total attendance was 26,974 persons, as against 19,011 on the corresponding day of the fair a year ago, and the paid admissions were 14,101, against 11,532, the 1917 record goes far to prove the assertion.

As far as the unexpected success of the automobile parade is concerned, even though the parade was not the most successful of the season, it was a success in every sense of the word. The parade was a success in every sense of the word. The parade was a success in every sense of the word.

Parade One of the most successful of the season, it was a success in every sense of the word. The parade was a success in every sense of the word. The parade was a success in every sense of the word.

French Capture More Positions And 500 Prisoners in Onslaught Launched in the Picardy Sector

Italians Continue Sweeping Advance in Albania—Occupied Berat—Capture Big Quantity of War Material and Many Prisoners—Austria About to Crumble Away, in Opinion of Military Experts

PARIS, July 12.—French troops attacked over a front of approximately three miles between Castel and north of Mailli-Rainville, in the Picardy sector, this morning, according to the war office statement issued tonight. The village of Castel, the Anchin Farm and number of strong German positions were taken and 500 prisoners were captured. The attack penetrated the German lines to a depth of more than a mile.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The occupation of Berat and the capture of quantities of war material and many prisoners by the advancing Italian forces in Albania and the Balkans, was announced today in an official dispatch from Rome. The message also told of losses inflicted upon the Austrians in surprise attacks at Conca Laggi and in the valley of the Arno, and of the repulse of many attacks in the south-eastern sector of Sasso Rassa. Bad weather was reported in the Alto Piano of Asiago.

ROME, July 12.—"Austria is about to crumble away," is the opinion of political and military observers here after the publication of the latest report from Albania and the Balkans, which the Entente Allies have succeeded in perfecting a single front, extending from the Adriatic Sea to Saloniki, on the Aegean Sea, a distance of some 200 miles.

LONDON, July 12.—The official statement issued by the war office tonight reads: "The enemy this morning launched an attack on the neighbourhood of Bucquy, southwest of Arras, was driven off with loss to the enemy. Except for some hostile artillery activity in the Hinges sector, and at other points, there is nothing further to report from the British front."

Calgary Crisis is Settled Temporarily by Assurance Given by Col MacDonald

Guarantees to Chief Justice Harvey That Men for Whom Habeas Corpus Writs Have Been Issued Will Not Be Removed from Jurisdiction of Court—Pls. Military and Civil Authorities Stay of Court Order Authorizing Sheriff to Take Men from Camp is Granted

CALGARY, July 12.—An undertaking given personally by Colonel George MacDonald, Chief of the Calgary Militia, to the Chief Justice Harvey that the men for whom writs of habeas corpus have been issued would not be removed from the jurisdiction of the court unless 24 hours' notice of intention was given to the sheriff at latest yesterday settled the crisis which had threatened the military and civil authorities today.

The undertaking was given at a special meeting called by Acting Mayor Freeze in the city hall tonight. The meeting was attended by Chief Justice Harvey, Colonel MacDonald, Major Carson, Acting Mayor Freeze, Alderman Mahaffey and the city solicitor.

Colonel MacDonald said it was too great and serious a matter not to take this responsibility where it is not in conflict with the military regulations.

"It is a precept in military regulations that where one feels that one should disobey and does not disobey that one could be court-martialed," said Colonel MacDonald.

CALGARY, July 12.—At the urgent plea of the city of Calgary, stay in the court order that the sheriff should go to Sarcee camp and secure the men ordered removed from the barracks and proceed to the city hall.

Chief Justice Harvey read a decision ordering that the sheriff fulfill his duties. Major Carson pleaded for a full hour with the military authorities to break the deadlock.

Finally it was agreed that if before tomorrow noon orders were received from Ottawa to the effect that before any of the men ordered released were removed from the barracks, that the military would be given the opportunity to do so.

If, however, no assurance is received by tomorrow noon that such an agreement will be given, the sheriff will go to the military camp and get the men.

The chief justice pointed out to the sheriff his duties, which included the swearing in of men to enforce this order.

Machine guns are placed at the barracks and will be used to resist the sheriff's efforts unless contrary orders are received from Ottawa before noon Saturday.

see that training camps are under the direction of men who both know and care. To tolerate ignorance or carelessness on the part of commanders or instructors would be a crime against the country, as well as against the men in training. A public avowed unfitness as to the conduct of the aviation camps where men are in training for the most dangerous of all branches of the service.

Down with autocracy.

Half the Austrian army in the delta of the Piave are casualties. The other half escaped the like fate by getting out. The Italian way of "resisting" an enemy of this kind is conclusive.

There are said to be some hogs at the fair which cost $1,000 each. The surprise element in this statement is below normal. From the prevailing price of pork the consumer is prepared to believe that a pig is worth almost anything from that up.

Berlin papers suggest that Germany will send a large army to Moscow to re-establish the machinery of dominance which was destroyed by the timely death of von Mirbach. If similar occurrences should demand the dispatch of large German armies to other parts of Russia the Allies would have cause to be grateful. The Allied governments are not hiring assassins, but they are under no obligation to wish bad luck to patriotic Russians who feel like taking their own country into their own hands.

A Saskatoon farmer was fined $100 for having failed to register by June 15th. The punishment will destroy confidence in the promise sent by the government that the farmer who failed to register by that date would not be penalized if he did so within thirty days thereafter and could give a good reason for having failed to register within the prescribed period. The sentence imposed upon this man will tend to make delinquents suspect that the promise was only a trap, and that they had better stay away from the registration places and quietly submit to disfranchisement. If the purpose was to get people to register and not to take their right to vote away from them—that purpose is not gained by a system which has the effect of frightening people away from the registration places.

A dispatch from Ottawa, evidently intended to soften down the offense of the Ministers in defying the courts and over-riding the habeas corpus law, says, "Termination to hold men in military service despite habeas corpus proceedings" raises a new issue. It is admitted that by so retaining a man a military officer might be placed in an awkward situation. On the one hand, if he declines to release the man, he is liable for proceedings for contempt of court; on the other, if he has either to hold the man or "decline to obey the orders of superior military authority." The officer who is ordered by the court to obey the law, and by the military authorities to disobey the law, is thereby placed in a trying position, no doubt. If the authorities at Ottawa have as much sympathy for him as they profess to show in this dispatch they can easily remedy matters. All they have to do is tell him to obey the law.

The Alberta Minister of Municipalities has been telling an audience at Victoria that he foresees the future city to be a place of abode in which every resident will have equal rights "regardless of his land-holdings." As this may indicate a trend of future municipal legislation in this province it is of some interest to the people concerned. It is due to note that if a city were run on those lines it would also be necessary that every resident should pay the same taxes and provide the same security for money borrowed by the city, "regardless of his land-holdings." Else the city could not have been under a receiver long ago. The powers of citizenship must be acquired by its responsibilities, or disaster follows.

INCREASE OF CANADA'S NET DEBT IN JUNE.
Ottawa, July 12.—Canada's net debt at the end of June amounted to $1,144,087,715, an increase during the month of $9,712,087. For the first three months of the fiscal year ended June 30 the revenue of the Dominion totaled $47,919,715.25, as compared with $44,322,149.

Great Negligence.
A Toronto jury has censured the authorities of an aviation training camp for "great negligence" because men were allowed to smoke in a poor magazine. The inevitable cost of cups appeared and a man was killed. The verdict will stimulate the popular impression that there have been more accidents at these camps than there need have been. No more terrible responsibility rests upon governing authorities than to Civil or Military Law.

The Dominion Government has presumed to set aside the right of personal liberty as guaranteed by the British constitution and as defined by the supreme court of Alberta, on the ground of military exigency. It has declared that military orders must supersede civil law. It is a part of the British system of government that in case of military exigency the operation of the civil law may be suspended by proclamation of martial law. In that case all civil rights of every member of the community stand in abeyance.

In the Calgary case the Government presumes to select out of the community certain persons who shall be under martial law and thereby be removed from the protection of the civil law, while the rest of the community are not. Such a thing was never heard of before in British Dominions. The British system is that the whole people are either under martial law or under civil law. The Government has the power to put the country or any part of it under martial law by proclamation. They have not done this. They have undertaken to apply martial law to a part of the community without taking the responsibility of applying it to the whole community. Civil and military administration cannot be mixed. The final control and responsibility must be either civil or military. It can't be partly civil and partly military, and it can't be civil only when it suits the military authorities—that is, it can't be and remain the British system.

DESPISED OUTSIDER HAULS IN MONEY

Cleveland, July 11.—Prize Lure, a despised outsider in the betting world, today won the feature of the Grand Circuit racing card at North Randall track today, winning the first and third heats from Allan Watts, who equalled a former favorite with Charley Peter, the time for the first heat, equalled the stake record of 2:04.4.

Not a favorite won today. Hollander Hob, once the stake record of 2:04.4, trotted to second place, ever recorded by a three-year-old on the local track, by taking the second heat of the third division of the Pacing stakes in 2:04.4.

Berry Pickers At Hatzic

WOMEN have played a very important part in the world wide war, and in Canada have demonstrated themselves as being capable of handling practically any kind of work. They have assisted railways, and are at present employed by the C. P. R. in various departments connected with the operation of trains. The women of Canada have helped to save the crops, and done wonderful work on the farms. During the autumn the Hi-yu Hi-yu girls of New Westminster considerably helped to save the berry crop of British Columbia, and the accompanying photograph shows a party of these jolly looking girls about to commence their daily task at High View Ranch, Hatzic.

The party left New Westminster by the S.S. "Skenna," and after a delightful trip arrived at Hatzic late in the evening.

Many new and interesting experiences awaited the girls at their new home, but they had evidently decided to overcome every obstacle with a smile, and their resolutions were nobly carried out.

This particular party was assigned sleeping quarters in the house, and the cellar was divided into dining rooms for all the girls on the ranch, numbering about forty.

Each party of girls, usually six or eight, looked after its own cooking, two girls taking charge of the meals each day.

The system of picking and packing the fruit was always fascinating to the pickers. Each girl, attired in overalls, carried a small tin suspended from her waist by a string, and into it the berries were dropped. Eight tins of berries filled a tray or stand containing eight boxes, and three of these stands formed a crate.

All agreed that the most important person on the ranch in the berry season was the packer who received the berries in the packing shed and gave each girl credit for her work by a system of holes punched on individual cards.

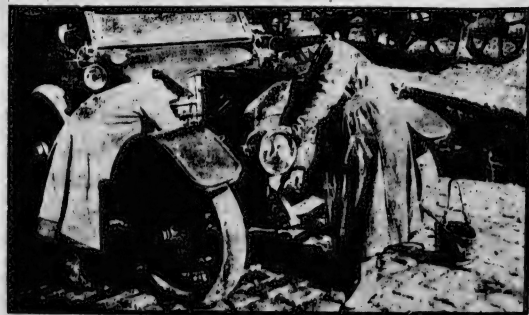

Before leaving the Hi-yu girls gave a most successful concert and dance and about $50 was handed to the Hatzic Patriotic Fund. Altogether the girls were delighted with their experiences.

Preservation of Industrial Peace

Memorandum Issued by Government Advising Against Strikes and Lock-Outs.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Principles which for the preservation of industrial peace in Canada at the present critical time, should, in the opinion of the government, be followed by employers and workers alike are set forth in a memorandum issued today.

The memorandum is in minimum in character, but it affirms at the outset that there should be no strikes or lockouts while Canada is engaged in the struggle with a foreign foe. It also points out the necessity for the maintenance of the maximum production, particularly in war industries.

For five years this Maxwell motor car has remained standard in practically its present form.

That's four years longer than some of its would-be rivals have stayed in business.

And it is longer than any other comparable model has endured.

Of course we have changed body lines and other external details from time to time, for the Maxwell clientele is fastidious as well as frugal.

Maxwell buyers demand style and finish, and all those other qualities that make all the difference to the owner who would be proud of the looks as well as the performance of his car.

But mechanically the changes in all those years have been in refinements of details only.

We have never had to apologize for a single detail—never found it necessary to change any unit—in the original Maxwell.

And you know, that had there been a single weak link—one detail that was faulty in the slightest—keen competition would have forced a change of such.

When, after looking them all over, you select a Maxwell motor car for yours, you have the satisfaction of knowing that more than a quarter of a million other careful buyers endorse your judgment and your good taste.

Better decide while the present price holds—there's no telling when it may have to advance again.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

Uncle Wiggily and the Sasafraz Log

Copyright, 1918, by McEwen News-Paper Syndicate.

"Hello! Hello!" cried Uncle Wiggily, the rabbit gentleman, as he came downstairs in his hollow stump morning gown. "Hello! What's the matter here? Nurse said not down yet. No breakfast ready? No Cornflakes? Something must be happening."

"I'll go right out in the woods and get you some," offered the bunny rabbit gentleman.

"First get your breakfast," spoke the muscular lady. "Then, if you will, you may make me some sasafraz tea." The little Wiggily got his own breakfast. He boiled the water for his bunny coffee, and the water dripped burn! burn! "Hello! I'm telling it to you just as it happened."

"And now for the sasafraz," spoke the lady as he offered off the table. "I'll be back as soon as I can. Nurse, he very bad headache, so I can't get your breakfast this morning, Wiggily! I'm sorry."

"But that! Not another word!" exclaimed the kind and honest uncle. "I who should be sorry and I am. I'll get my own breakfast. But first, what's the matter here? Nurse said not down yet. No breakfast ready? No Cornflakes? Something must be happening."

"Well, I wrote a little sasafraz tea would help," said Miss Fussy Wiggily.
